

U.S. Hammers at Issue of Prisoners

PARIS (AP) — Ambassador David K. E. Bruce hammered at the prisoner of war issue at the Paris peace talks today and challenged the Vietnamese Communist delegates to prove their claims that prisoners are being humanely treated.

Addressing the 93rd plenary session of the conference, Bruce called for impartial inspection of prisoner of war camps, saying that failure to allow such inspection "has raised grave suspicions about the treatment these men receive."

"It is only understandable to conclude that you indeed have something to hide—that your claims of humanitarian treatment are open to the most serious question," Bruce told the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese delegates.

Earlier, Communist delegates wrote off as propaganda expressions of U.S. concern over prisoners of war. They charged that the United States is pressing the issue now to cover recent air raids and reconnaissance over North Vietnam, which they say are violations of American engagements.

Bruce recalled the November raid on North Vietnam, terming it "limited-duration protective reaction air strikes against missile and anti aircraft gun sites and related facilities." He added that "contrary to your claims, no U.S. planes were shot down." Hanoi reported that five planes and a helicopter were lost.

Bruce again pleaded for serious talks, saying "after almost two years of the Paris meeting no productive negotiations whatsoever. The weekly talks, delayed a week by a Communist boycott because of the air raids on the North, opened with a Viet Cong assertion that the raids were "an insolent challenge to the Vietnamese people and world opinion."

Mrs. Nguyen Thi Binh, head of the Viet Cong delegation, said the American raids Nov. 21 and 22 and a single plane attack last Monday were "extremely serious acts of war."

Wildlife Refuge for Union Co.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. David Pryor, D-Ark., said Wednesday that the House Public Works Committee has approved a proposal to create a national wildlife refuge in the Felsenthal Lock and Dam area in Union County.

The proposal is a modification of the Ouachita and Black rivers navigation project which is included in the Omnibus Public Works Bill of 1970. The bill is expected to come before the House for debate within the next two weeks.

assurances, and was "open ended." It is likely to set off a protest among members of the U.S. congress who want to cut U.S. defense spending by bringing home a considerable number of the U.S. troops in Europe.

Last year U.S. officials gave American strength in NATO as 310,000 men. The current figure is 285,000. But American officials say they will not be tied down to specific manpower figures, only to a promise not to reduce fighting readiness.

Rogers asked the ministers of the other 14 nations to reaffirm their interest in mutual, balanced force reductions with the Soviets and their allies. The East should be urged, he said, to start exploratory talks next year.

The Soviet Bloc has proposed that talks about reductions of foreign troops take place at a general conference on European security. Rogers said exploratory talks might well come before a meeting.

searching for them.

Cloud cover over the rugged mountainous area has been heavy all week, and officials said no trace of either plane has been found. Nor has anything been picked up from the emergency radios airmen carry to give their position if they crash.

Officials said it was believed that reduced visibility from the overcast was a factor in both crashes. Neither plane was equipped with radar, although both had navigational aids for use in poor weather.

Also in the war —

The allied commands' weekly casualty summaries showed that the total of American battlefield deaths dropped to 32 last week, 33 less than the week before and about what they had been for much of the fall. A total of 430 South Vietnamese soldiers were reported killed in action last week, the highest in three months, while the commands reported 1,300 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong killed.

Another 178 U.S. troops and 934 South Vietnamese were reported wounded in action last week. The U.S. Command reported another 32 Americans died last week from such non-hostile causes as accidents and illness.

The U.S. Command said enemy shelling attacks had dropped off more than 50 per cent in Vietnam during the past 24 hours, with a dozen rocket and mortar attacks reported between 8 a.m. Wednesday and 8 a.m. Thursday, compared with 28 in the previous 24 hours. All the Wednesday-Thursday attacks were against South Vietnamese bases and troops.

A delayed field report said that 18 South Vietnamese militiamen were killed and 15 wounded in a North Vietnamese-Viet Cong ground attack on a district military headquarters early Wednesday on the central coast 240 miles northeast of Saigon. Six enemy were also reported killed.

In Cambodia, the government reported two attacks inside the outer defense ring of Phnom Penh.

One hit government troops in a high school 10 miles south of the Cambodian capital, but a spokesman could give no casualty figures or damage information.

Strange Twist in the Tate Murder Trial

By LINDA DEUTSCH
Associated Press Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Sharon Tate murder trial has developed two more strange twists—the mysterious disappearance of a defense attorney and the sudden reappearance of a missing member of Charles Manson's hippie style family to surrender on charges in a separate slaying.

The attorney, portly, bearded Ronald Hughes, 35, is the object of a sheriff's helicopter and ground search in wilderness 130 miles north of Los Angeles. A friend, Larry Dyer, said he believed Hughes was marooned there on a weekend outing by mudslides caused by torrential rain.

The fugitive family member, barefoot, bearded Bruce Davis, 27, made a dramatic street-corner surrender Wednesday amidst a crowd of newsmen and giggling girl followers of Manson. He had been sought for nine months on murder charges in the slaying of musician Gary Hinman. His arraignment was ordered today.

Asked what relation his surrender might have to Manson's trial, Davis said, "He would do it for me." When asked to elaborate, he shrugged and said, "They want to kill bodies. They're putting murder charges on everybody."

Refuses to Testify, Case Slowed

FT. BENNING, Ga. (AP) — By refusing to testify even to being in Lt. William L. Calley Jr.'s platoon, a former rifleman has slowed the four-witness-a-day pace of Calley's court-martial.

The trial judge, obviously nettled, was to rule today what should be done with the reluctant witness, now a civilian. The judge told newsmen a contempt citation was a possibility.

"I wish to take my rights under the Constitution," said Alan Boyce, 22, of Bradley Beach, N.J., when asked Wednesday the routine opening question of whether he had been in Vietnam.

"You are directed to answer the question," said Judge Reid W. Kennedy. "Were you in Vietnam?"

"Yes," Boyce said finally.

It was the last time he responded to any question about Vietnam and what happened at My Lai on March 16, 1968. Calley is being tried on charges of murdering 102 Vietnamese civilians in the village that day.

The interruption—which caused Judge Kennedy to close the trial to public and press—came after other members of Calley's platoon placed the pudgy, 27-year-old lieutenant near the ditch where 70 of the killings are alleged to have occurred.

1939 and 40 there was a period of inactivity, but in 1941 the club was reactivated and has met regularly, once a month, since that time. There are now forty three active members in the local organization.

Work with youth is perhaps the most impressive accomplishment of the local B & PW Club. For a number of years a Student Loan Fund provided for the education of a number of students. This service is no longer provided, but in its place B and PW now provides an outright scholarship.

The local B & PW Club sponsors the NIKE Club in the local High School with Mrs. Virginia Hosmer as counselor. This organization is made up of Senior girls chosen each Spring from the seniors to be.

In a recent meeting of the NIKE Club the young women were asked to write on an unsigned card the most pressing problem confronting them. The great majority stated their most pressing problem was non-communication with parents and older people.

Kiwanis President Dale Franks announced the meeting next week would be a Ladies Night meeting at 7:30 at Perry's Dining Room with our own Miss Arkansas, Miss Donna Connelly providing the program.

Guests at Tuesday's Kiwanis Club meeting were Key Clubbers Richard Butler and Tim White.

Claims Stores Failed to Pass on Cuts

WASHINGTON (AP) — One of President Nixon's top farm economists is doing some ham-boning—not jawboning—on behalf of hard-pressed farmers by charging retail stores have not passed along cuts in hog prices to consumers who buy chops, roasts and sausage.

Don Paarlberg, director of economics for the Agriculture Department, says middlemen actually increased their price margins between what farmers get and consumers pay while hog prices took some of the sharpest tumbles on record.

"This perverse pricing policy results from the laggard manner in which the food trade adjusts its selling prices," Paarlberg told newsmen Wednesday.

Paarlberg said he had urged the National Association of Food Chains to take the lead in reducing retail pork prices and promoting pork more to help consumers as well as farmers.

But, Paarlberg said, this proposal was rejected by the trade.

A spokesman for the association acknowledged the farm-retail price spread had widened during the year but said store prices slackened recently.

Paarlberg, asked if his statements were part of Nixon's "inflation alert" strategy, said the White House had not been informed in advance of his action.

Pope Lands in Jakarta, Crowd Small

JAKARTA (AP) — Pope Paul VI landed in Jakarta today for a 16-hour visit, but the capital of mostly Moslem Indonesia turned out only small crowds at the airport and along his route through the city.

The crowd was expected to pick up tonight when the Pope celebrates Mass in a sports stadium. A throng of 100,000 was predicted.

An official welcoming party headed by President Suharto and about 500 schoolgirls and air force cadets were at the airport to cheer the 73-year-old pontiff as he completed the seven-hour flight from Sydney, Australia.

Appearing rested and in good health on the sixth stop of his 25,000-mile trip, the Pope thanked Suharto for his welcome and praised Indonesia as a land known for its religious tolerance.

The pontiff also used the occasion to call for world peace, saying that if politicians would put aside their political ambitions "there would be permanent peace."

Suharto thanked the Pope for coming to Indonesia and said he was "greatly honored" by the papal visit. Then he took him over to meet the official welcoming party, which included high-ranking Indonesian officials, foreign diplomats and leaders of the country's 2.2 million Roman Catholics.

Tight security was in effect because of the assassination attempt on the Pope in Manila last week.

At Jakarta's Dutch-built, 69-year-old cathedral the pontiff met with 700 priests and nuns from the sprawling island nation.

He said in a brief sermon read in English: "We would not have satisfied our desire of meeting the great people of Asia if we had not included this stop at Jakarta."

Welcoming the Pope, the independent newspaper, Pedoman played down religious tensions between Catholics and Moslems in Indonesia, saying such frictions had been only minor. In the past two years, Moslem fanatics have burned Catholic and other Christian schools and churches in Jakarta and other areas.

The influential Moslem daily Harian Abadi welcomed the papal visit but with a warning that Catholic policies in Indonesia should be carried out "naturally" and not in the way in which "Vatican policies are seemingly identical with greedy expansionism as reflected by Western imperialism in developing countries."

HELEN HELP US!

JIMMY CRICKETS, HE'S A GEMINI!

Dear Helen: "Tenny Bopper Who Knows" (who put you down for publishing the "What Is A?" that come from your readers) don't know nuthin'! All in favor of those clever descriptions say "Aye!!!"

I doubt that any girl in the know would ever sign herself "Tenny bopper." She's unreal. — FOR THE "WHAT IS A?" SERIES

Dear For:

Thanks, friend. Here's one with a new twist: WHAT IS A GEMINI BOY FRIEND?

He has a smile like a Cheshire cat and eyes that light up the sky. He's a great one for throwing you into the swimming pool with your clothes on.

He's either an hour early or an hour late for a date. He's a barrel of surprises.

He gets upset sometimes, but a smile always seems to calm him down a little.

He's always there when someone needs a friend.

He has a love of life. He'll call you at 4:00 a.m. to say "Hi," and reverse the charges.

He wears sunglasses at night, and drives a foreign car that always manages to snag your nylons.

He could charm your grandmother into wearing a mini skirt. He may forget your birthday, but he'll bring a bottle of champagne on your six-month "first-date" anniversary.

He's the only person you know who actually enjoys hamburgers and beer by candlelight.

He'll take you for a romantic evening walk on the beach and lose the car in the fog.

He has travel in his soul, but he'll always think of you as home. Don't be too hurt if he rarely writes; he's dreaming of you (constantly).

He's a man, and he's a little boy.

He isn't an easy person to get to know; but to know him is to love him.

There's more, much more, but that all comes with the barrel of surprises. —DAISY

Dear Helen: Either "Fasting Against My Will" is dating my boy friend, or there are two stingy guys running around here.

This fella I was going with is good looking, has a real good job (an engineer) — and our first date was spent feeding the ducks in the nearby park. In the month I dated him, he blew a grand total of $2.50 for a movie (second run). The other times we rode around (not far!), sat in front of our TV or in the park. Once he ordered a pizza, but forgot to pick it up.

As for his car, he has a '70 sports job with air conditioning, stereo, vinyl roof — the works — and he treats it like a baby. He was a great conversationalist too. It was always "my job," "my apartment," "my car... camera, stereo...etc."

Thanks, Helen, for your advice to FAMW. You killed two going-northern romances with one shiv! — FASTING NO MORE!

Dear FNM: ...Always happy to help. — H.

Lots of Trash

An estimated 17 tons of trash per person are produced annually in the United States, ranging from garbage to commercial refuse and industrial scrap to demolition rubbish, according to Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Television and Radio

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the great charms of CBS's National Geographic series is that somehow they avoid looking and sounding like the conventional illustrated travel-talk. "Ethiopia: The Hidden Empire," which was the Wednesday night special, fell into the old trap.

Since that remote and absolute monarchy is really a place about which the average American knows little, this actually worked out as a plus. The African nation, ruled by the small but splendid Conquering Lion of Judah is a dramatic territory of vivid contrasts, heavy with history. A team of documentarians, obviously fascinated by the primitive people and the magnificent scenery, swung all around the country. They focused on craggy mountains, religious sects and colorful ceremonies, on the arid desert and its tribes. They even managed to toss in a conservation lesson by covering a crocodile hunt on a muddy river so that the emphasis was on the threatened extinction of the reptiles.

NBC's "Music Hall" turned out an hour in which three performers had an opportunity to discard their usual television images and romp around the stage. Robert Young, now thoroughly identified by his role of family doctor, bobbed up in a sort of musical comedy version of his old character in "Father Knows Best." Jane Wyatt once again was playing his wife in the semimusical. And as a big switch, the two Arnaz kids, Lucie and Desi, played their teenage off-spring.

Young seemed definitely uncomfortable tossing around the giddy lines and moaning lightly about the generation gap. Lucie and Desi, singing and dancing with considerably more aplomb than skill, showed that they really need the careful back-stopping they receive back at homebase, a comedy series called "Here's Lucy."

The hour was a laudable effort to do something different in terms of comedy, music and sentiment. What with Young buckling into a serious dramatic reading and all, the assorted parts never were very well assembled.

ABC's Frank Reynolds' first big assignment after he winds up his anchorman's chores on the evening news at the end of the week, will be narrating a two-hour network special called "The American Adventure." The program, on Dec. 28, will attempt to examine our national values.

Harry Reasoner, recently hired away from CBS, takes over the Reynolds spot on the dinner-hour news next Monday.

Defense to Call Thomas to Testify

WEST MEMPHIS, Ark. (AP) — The attorney for Crittenden County Sheriff Marion Thomas was expected to call Thomas to testify in his own behalf in Circuit Court here today.

Thomas is being tried on two of seven charges of embezzlement.

The state rested its case Wednesday after hearing the testimony of Clarence Johnson, Blytheville accountant, who has been hired to audit Thomas' accounts.

Johnson said that a special audit of Thomas' records from Jan. 1, 1965, through June 30, 1970, showed that the total he had found embezzled by Thomas was $52,867.97.

Johnson said that Thomas' federal income tax returns showed he paid $424.92 in 1966; $47.16 in 1967 and 1968; and nothing in 1969.

He also testified on testimony that was presented Tuesday about transactions Thomas allegedly had with Farrior's Inc., a Little Rock clothing firm, and Schneider's Inc., a North Little Rock tailoring firm.

Johnson said the records showed that Thomas received $1,825.57 in Crittenden County tax money from checks cashed by Charles R. York, president of Farrior's; $4,800.10 from checks given by Southland Racing Corp. to Farrior's and cashed by Farrior's, and $3,859.21 paid by Farrior's to Schneider's in Thomas' behalf.

A motion by Thomas' attorney, Vincent Skillman Jr., for a mistrial was denied. Skillman made the motion after the prosecution allegedly made a reference to Thomas stealing.

Montgomery Rated Best by Broyles

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer
FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — You won't find Bill Montgomery's name among the nation's collegiate passing leaders.

For one thing, the Arkansas Razorbacks run twice as much as they pass and, for another, Montgomery has gone to the bench early in several Razorback runways.

However, Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles ranks Montgomery first in the statistical category that means the most—the won-loss record. During the three years Montgomery has been the starting quarterback, Arkansas has compiled a 28-4 record, including two losses to Texas.

Montgomery and the other Razorback seniors will get their final shot at the Longhorns Saturday at Austin in the "Big Shootout II."

Montgomery, a 180-pounder from Carrollton, Tex., has already set school total offense record of 4,926 yards, not counting two bowl games. This season, he's completed 59.6 percent of his passes—101 of 172 for 1,523 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Montgomery has been letter-perfect in his last two games—victories over SMU and Texas Tech on windy afternoons. In those two, he completed 34 of 55 for 472 yards and three touchdowns and did not suffer an interception.

"He is having a fantastic year," Broyles said after the Tech game. "Others may deserve the Heisman Trophy more, but I don't know. I believe he's as good as (Joe) Theismann (of Notre Dame), (Archie) Manning (of Mississippi), and (Jim) Plunkett (of Stanford), and when you consider his three-year record of getting the job done, he's better. He is great at doing the things that win football games."

Broyles says Montgomery has confidence in himself and that the Razorbacks have confidence in Montgomery.

"Even if they don't score the first or second time, they still believe they will," Broyles said. "Even if the score mounts against them, they still believe they will come back . . . Montgomery has the uncanny ability to overcome any adversity immediately."

Montgomery showed his leadership abilities in the 1970 Sugar Bowl against Mississippi and in the season-opening loss to Stanford. Arkansas lost to Mississippi 27-22 after trailing 24-6 and dropped a 34-28 decision to Stanford after trailing by four touchdowns. Against Mississippi, Montgomery set a Sugar Bowl total offense record of 360 yards.

"He got us back to where one play could have won either game for us," Broyles said.

Earned Honor, Says Arkansas State Coach

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas State University Coach Bennie Ellender said Wednesday after learning his football team had finished number one in the final Associated Press small college football poll that he felt the players and coaches "earned this honor."

"It's a tremendous honor and it reflects on the type of people we have in our program, and our coaching staff," Ellender said. "But we don't kid ourselves, we know it doesn't mean we are the best football team in the country, but it does mean that we might have the ability to beat anybody (college level) we would play."

The Indians finished with a perfect 10-0 record and have a date with Central Missouri State Dec. 12 in the Pecan Bowl in Arlington, Tex.

Ellender said he could not give a fair evaluation on whether this was his best team at ASU, "but I must say I don't think we've ever had another team that could do so many things as well as this team was able to do."

At the beginning of the season, Ellender said he did not anticipate things would turn out so well, but said "we honestly felt that we would have another good year."

Ellender said that after the Indians got past the Citadel defeated in the third game, "we felt we had a chance to go all the way. However, No. 1 was a complete surprise. It was a surprise that first week, and there were a couple of other times that we were surprised that we maintained our ranking."

Montana, 10-0, received three first-place votes and finished second in the voting with 162 points. North Dakota State was third with 147, Tampa finished fourth with 146 and Tennessee State wound up fifth with 131.

Wofford, Texas A&I, Jacksonville, Ala., Alcorn A&M and Southwest Louisiana rounded out the Top Ten.

The final Top Twenty college division teams with first place votes in parentheses and total points on a 20-18-16-14-12-10-9-8-etc. formula:

to Mexico. Seats are scaled from $5 to $30. Naples is guaranteed $60,000, with Backus to get 18 per cent of the net.

Win or lose, Backus said he would not quit fighting as he did in 1965 after losing three straight.

"I'm only 27 and I've got a couple of years left," said the left-hander who hails from Canastota as does his uncle, Carmen Basilio, former welter and middleweight champion. "If I lose, I'd try again for a title fight."

To earn this title shot Backus compiled a record of 21 victories against three losses and a draw to gain the No. 2 welterweight contender ranking from both the World Boxing Association and Ring Magazine. His over-all record is 28-10-4.

Naples' future will be determined by money.

"I'll fight any place where there's money," said the 30-year-old Cuban-born Mexican citizen whose 42 knockouts equal Backus' total fights. "I'd fight as a middleweight, too, if it were for the title."

Since turning pro 12 years ago Naples has registered 59 victories against four defeats and he has won his last 20 fights, 17 by knockout.

He won the 147-pound championship by knocking out Curtis Cokes in 13 rounds April 18, 1969. His title defenses have been a 10-round knockout of Cokes, a 15-round decision over Emile Griffith and a 15-round knockout of Ernie "Indian Red" Lopez.

Named to Pick Iowa Coach

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) — A five-man committee selected to find a new head football coach for the University of Iowa is expected to meet later this week to begin the search.

The committee was announced Wednesday night by the University's Board in Control of Athletics following coach Ray Nagel's Tuesday night announcement that he will not seek renewal of his contract.

The 43-year-old Nagel, who had a 16-32-2 record at Iowa, refused comment on his startling announcement, saying his reasons for quitting are "private and personal." He added he does not intend to stay in the coaching profession.

In lesser deals, Atlanta traded catcher Bob Tiltman to Milwaukee for outfielder Hank Allyn and infielder John Ryan, and the Cubs sold infielder Phil Gagliano to Boston.

Trades, Drugs Top Topics in Baseball

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Concern over possible drug abuse by major league players and late-season trading ploys by major league clubs overshadowed the normal course of business today at baseball's winter meetings.

The drug issue was interjected Wednesday following an unprecedented gathering of team physicians.

The trade controversy centered around Atlanta's reacquisition of 47-year-old Hoyt Wilhelm two days earlier in a deal with the Chicago Cubs.

The Wilhelm trade was one of 10 transactions made at the major league level during the first two days of the meetings. But the market fell of Wednesday and there was only one deal of consequence.

It sent pitcher Bob Johnson, a young strikeout artist, from Kansas City to Pittsburgh as the key figure in a 3-for-3 swap.

The social highlight of the meetings—a $50-per-plate dinner with Academy Award overtones—was set for tonight to honor the game's brightest stars.

But the team physicians shared the spotlight Wednesday with Commissioner Bowie Kuhn, who indicated he will investigate the deals that sent relief specialist Wilhelm from the Braves to the Cubs for last season's National League East stretch drive ... and then back again.

The use and abuse of drugs was among several medical items discussed by doctors of the 24 major league clubs, whose meeting concluded with the formation of the Association of Professional Baseball Physicians.

"We're not talking about narcotics," the commissioner said later in the day. "They are concerned with whether ethical drugs, such as amphetamine and pep pills, have been over-used and whether their use is being properly regulated."

The physicians issued a statement defining the aim of the association "to encourage the administration of the best possible medical care to professional baseball players, and to act in an advisory capacity to baseball management on matters pertaining to the medical care of baseball players."

"I think it's an excellent thing," Kuhn said. "Right now, I could use their advice ... for a headache."

The cause of the commissioner's discomfort was not discussed. But one factor might have been the Wilhelm affair. The majors' oldest player was sold to Chicago with two weeks remaining in the regular season and the Cubs in the thick of the division race.

Pittsburgh and the New York Mets picked up pitching help in similar deals down the stretch.

Wilhelm, who had joined the Braves in a waiver deal during the 1969 stretch run, helping them capture the NL West crown, appeared in just three games for the Cubs. Atlanta got him back Monday in exchange for first baseman Hal Breen, a minor league home run king.

There has been widespread criticism of all late-season deals which bolster contending clubs as detrimental to the integrity of baseball.

The day's inter-league trade sent Johnson to the Pirates along with shortstop Jackie Hernandez and catcher Jim Campanis. In return, Kansas City received 5-foot-4 shortstop Fred Palek, smallest player in the majors, pitcher Bruce Dal Canton and catcher Jerry May.

Johnson, a 27-year-old right-hander, had an 8-13 record for the Royals last season and struck out 206 batters—third highest total in the American League.

In lesser deals, Atlanta traded catcher Bob Tiltman to Milwaukee for outfielder Hank Allyn and infielder John Ryan, and the Cubs sold infielder Phil Gagliano to Boston.

Billy Casper and Jack Nicklaus, for example, rank one-two on the money list and 18-19 on the point list. John Miller is 12th on the point list and 40th on the money list.

It will be changed next year, but right now, the point standings are the biggest topic of conversation among the touring pros—and Jimmy Jamieson is the man they're shooting at.

YOU CAN'T WIN 'EM ALL. Jay Parish, 15, looks forlornly into a window advertising karate lessons as he hobbles away. Jay, a karate enthusiast, broke his leg in a mishap at the New York school.

Jamieson on Hot Seat at Coral Springs

CORAL SPRINGS, Fla. (AP) — Jimmy Jamieson is the man on pro golf's hot seat.

Going into today's first round in the $125,000 Coral Springs Open Golf Tournament, the chunky little tour sophomore from Moline, Ill. ranked No. 60 on the point list.

And since that's the final spot that gains an exemption from qualifying rounds on next year's tour, Jamieson is the man the most of the tourists are gunning for.

There are only two more events on the tour schedule this year, this one and next week's Bahama Islands Open. And the jockeying for position around that No. 60 spot is absolutely fierce.

"It's tough," Jamieson said, but grinned. "But it's different from last year."

At this stage last year, Jamieson was in danger of losing his card as an approved player, because of poor play. But he rallied in the final tournament for a position in the top 10 that kept him on the tour.

Now he's fighting for a spot that will exempt him from the Monday qualifying—what most players contend is the toughest aspect of life on the tour.

A new, point system is being used this year. Next season they'll go back to roughly the same system used before—official money.

Under the point system, a player receives 120 points for a tournament win, 90 for second, 85 for third, on down to one point for 70th place.

At the end of the year, the 60 players with the most points are exempt.

Also exempt, however, are all former U.S. Open and PGA champions. There are a large number of players in that category who would not otherwise be exempt.

They include Don January, Lionel Hebert, Dave Marr, Al Geiberger and Bob Rosburg. And there are a large list of familiar names who won't have enough points, barring a major upset. They include former Masters champions Art Wall and Gay Brewer, and such former tournament winners as Gardner Dickinson, Bunky Henry, Ken Still, Tom Shaw, Paul Harner, George Knudson, Don Massengale, Doug Sanders and Al Balding.

The list is very tight from about No. 52 — Dick Crawford with 748 points — to 69 — Ted Hayes with 625. In between, and all struggling, are Terry Dill, Phil Rodgers, John Schroeder, Bob Smith, Bob Stanton, Jim Colbert, Julius Boros, Ray Floyd, Chuck Courtney, Steve Spray, January, Dave Eichelberger, Labron Harris, and Hebert.

Hebert, January, Boros and Floyd, of course, are safe because of their PGA titles. The others all are in danger.

Many of the pros are highly critical of the point system, pointing to the major discrepancies between the money list and the point list.

Billy Casper and Jack Nicklaus, for example, rank one-two on the money list and 18-19 on the point list. John Miller is 12th on the point list and 40th on the money list.

It will be changed next year, but right now, the point standings are the biggest topic of conversation among the touring pros—and Jimmy Jamieson is the man they're shooting at.

Worster Still Listed as Doubtful

By JACK KEEVER

Associated Press Writer

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The room was dark, but you could almost see coach Darrell Royal cringe when a Texas Aggie defender buried the top of his helmet in Steve Worster's hip.

"That's where Steve got hurt. It makes you want to throw up," Royal said as he narrated the Texas-Texas A&M game film for Longhorn Club members Wednesday.

Worster later struggled for one yard on his second and final carry against A&M, and Royal said, "That's not Steve...He was hurting, you can tell."

Worster sustained a severe bruised hip, which has sidelined him and has made sophomore Steve Fleming the probable starter when the top-ranked Longhorns and No. 4 Arkansas Razorbacks meet Saturday for the Southwest Conference title and host spot in the Cotton Bowl.

Royal listed Worster as "doubtful" for the Saturday afternoon game, but later said Worster's condition had improved enough for him to trot. "But that's it. He was in shorts. He didn't work out."

Worster is Texas' all-time career scoring leader with 204 points, while Fleming has punched across two touchdowns this year as Worster's sub.

Worster has booted for 772 yards, while Fleming has gained 209. But Worster's 5.6-yard average is only .1 better than Fleming's, and the sophomore showed slightly more speed than Worster in a 62-yard dash against the Aggies.

"You can count on your fingers the number of people who can remember who was hurt and missed a game," Royal said. "All they can remember is who won the damn game."

"So we'll just circle our wagons tighter...and play with what we've got, and they can play with what they bring to town."

Royal claimed placekicker Happy Feller told him his knee hurt, but after Feller socked a 70-yard field goal in practice, Royal said, "I figured his knee was well and quit worrying."

Local Girls Beaten at Ouachita

By BILL MOORE
Star Sports Writer

Running into some late foul trouble, the Hope Ladycats were barely trimmed last night in the Ouachita Tournament by Star City, 80-77, in a high scoring affair.

This is the third loss suffered by the Ladycats in four games, after an opening win over Ashdown, but there is still a long way to go and with their pride and determination, Hope will win. Star City took a quick 3-0 lead before Ladycat Dee Singleton hit Hope's first points with only 35 seconds played in the game. However, Jenny Delaney and Brenda Jones hit goals for Star City, and a 10-2 lead, before Hope called a time out with 5:20 showing on the clock.

Back in play, Singleton, Betty Rodden, and Janet McCain all hit two points in less than a minute, and finally, with 3:07 left in the first quarter, McCain sunk a jumpshot to give Hope a 11-10 lead.

Stretching their lead, Hope began to find the shooting range, but so did Star City. McCain hit Hope's last five points of the quarter, giving the Ladycats a 23-19 lead, moving into the second period.

Trading scores point for point, a miscue gave the Star City team a 29-27 lead with 3:50 left in the half, and although tying the score three times in the last three minutes, the Ladycats could never go ahead.

With a little over a minute left in the half, Delaney hit three points to give Star City a 40-37, halftime margin.

In the second half, Hope made a terrific comeback bid to win, only to see it fall three points

Boston Magic Has Lakers in Its Spell

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
That old Boston magic's got Los Angeles in its spell.

The Boston Celtics, on their biggest winning jag in years, beat the Los Angeles Lakers 114-111 Wednesday night in the National Basketball Association.

It was the Celtics' sixth straight—the longest streak since Dec., 1967.

And John Havlicek, who helped Boston produce a basket of winners down through the years, was the big gun Wednesday night with 29 points.

Elsewhere in the NBA, Detroit stopped New York 101-82; Seattle blitzed Cincinnati 119-111 and Phoenix ripped Atlanta 128-112.

In the American Basketball Association, Memphis beat Indiana 106-100; Kentucky turned back Pittsburgh 139-127 and Utah defeated Virginia 122-115.

Jo Jo White put in a 20-foot jump shot in the closing moments and Havlicek added a clutch free throw with six seconds left in Boston's victory.

Don Chaney then added two free throws with two seconds left after the Celtics let Jerry West hit an uncontested layup. West and Wilt Chamberlain both had 20 points for the Lakers.

Dave Bing fired in 29 points while Jimmy Walker had 22 as Detroit bombed the Knicks, who only scored 12 points in the final period—their fewest in any quarter since 1954. Their scoring total was the lowest of the season for the defending NBA champs.

Don Kojis scored 30 points, leading Seattle back from a 25-point halftime deficit and beat Cincinnati. The SuperSonics, down 66-41 at the half, outscored the Royals 75-45 in the second half.

Connie Hawkins' season-high 32 points led Phoenix over Atlanta. Lou Hudson had 19 for Atlanta.

short on some last minute foul shots.

Early in the third period the opponents widened their lead to ten points, 48-38, but with 5:19 left, Belinda East and Rodden brought Hope back to within five.

Another shooting spree sent the Star City team out to a 55-43 margin but again the Ladycats came back, this time to within six.

With 1:05 left in the period Delaney and Jones combined for three goals from the outside and after McCain hit two goals from underneath the goal, Hope trailed, 64-55, with only one quarter remaining.

Hope took the fourth quarter tipoff and East instantly hit a field goal and after McCain had scored from an outside shot, the Ladycats trailed by only five points with 5:51 left to play.

After falling behind by 10 points, East and Singleton unloaded three goals and McCain, a minute later, hit two more, as the Ladycats now trailed only 75-73.

With only 2:04 left McCain hit a layup to tie the score, but from there on Star City used some late Hope fouls to win.

Playing defensively were Cindy Hollis, Betty Honeycutt, Janice Hobson, Sandra Hamilton, and Renee Quillin.

McCain led the Hope scoring with 36 points, followed by Rodden with 16, East with 15, and Singleton hitting 10. Brenda Jones led Star City with 41 points.

Hope's next game will be December 10 against Gurdon. The junior boys and girls host Prescott tonight in Jones Field House with the first game starting at 6:30 p.m.

Surprised That Ranking Maintained

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — The coach of the number-one ranked Arkansas State University Indians football team said Wednesday there were times "we were surprised that we maintained our ranking."

The team finished No. 1 in the final Associated Press small college football poll.

"It's a tremendous honor and it reflects on the type of people we have in our program and our coaching staff," Coach Bennie Ellender said. "But we don't kid ourselves, we know it doesn't mean that we might have the ability to beat anybody (college level) we would play."

Defense Is Just the Only Thing

NEW YORK (AP) — Defense isn't everything, it's the only thing. Look at Minnesota and Los Angeles.

Despite not having high-powered offenses this year, the two are having successful National Football League seasons because of their Big D.

The Vikings, leaders in the National Conference's Central Division and the Rams, tied for first in the Western, are running 1-2 in the team defense race. NFL statistics showed today.

Minnesota, 9-2, has allowed 2,361 yards rushing and passing to opponents and Los Angeles, 7-3-1, has given up 2,734.

Maple Leafs Always Are Shorthanded

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Toronto Maple Leafs have come up short so often this season it must have felt almost routine when they found themselves a man short six times Wednesday night.

On two of those occasions, however, slippery Dave Keon broke away for goals and the Leafs shelled the Los Angeles Kings 7-0 behind Jacques Plante's 74th National Hockey League shutout.

Elsewhere, New York downed St. Louis 4-2 and Chicago nipped Boston 4-3, leaving the Rangers and Bruins deadlocked for the lead in the East Division. In other games, Montreal and Pittsburgh tied 3-3 and Minnesota edged California 3-2.

Keon, who also scored a goal with the teams at full strength for a hat trick, notched his fifth and sixth shorthanded goals of the season, one short of the NHL record set by Boston's Jerry Toppazzini in 1957-8. Five of the six have come since Keon's old penalty-killing partner George Armstrong came out of his umpteenth retirement.

Plante's shutout was Toronto's first of the year but the 41-year-old goalie didn't have it easy. He stopped 35 shots and was particularly sharp against Juha Widing, Bill Flett, Mike Byers and Lucien Grenier.

Third-period goals by Ron Stewart—also shorthanded—Jean Ratelle and Dave Balon helped the Rangers turn back St. Louis. Jim Lorentz and Jim Roberts scored for the Blues in the third period, who trailed 1-0 after two sessions on a goal by New York's Ted Irvine.

It was New York's 12th straight game at home without a defeat and boosted sub goalie Gilles Villeneuve's record to 7-1-1.

Chicago extended its unbeaten home ice string to 13 games, edging Boston on Dennis Hull's second goal of the game early in the final period. The Black Hawks withstood Phil Esposito's hat trick and moved six points ahead of St. Louis in the West.

The contest was a rough one, with the main brawl late in the first period matching Chicago's Jim Pappin, Keith Magnuson and Dan Maloney against Boston's Don Awrey, Johnny McKenzie and Ted Green.

Pittsburgh scored three quick goals in the second period—two by Ken Schinkel—but Montreal rallied to tie the game midway through the third period when Pete Mahovlich drilled Yvan Cournoyer's rebound past Les Binkley.

Bill Goldsworthy ended a 16-game scoring drought early in the second period with the goal

Folks in State Have Gone 'Hog Wild'

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)

People in this Ozark Mountain town have gone "Hog wild" in anticipation of Saturday's game between the University of Arkansas and Texas at Austin, Tex.

Each afternoon after classes UA students parade through town and campus honking their car horns; calling the Hogs; and making threats about the future of the No. 1 rated Texas

Longhorns.

Even though the official pep rally is slated for tonight, several impromptu rallies have been staged in the open-air theater here on the campus.

Fraternal and sorority houses and dormitories have decorated their buildings in support of the Razorbacks.

One of the first banners to be hung claimed "Let's enjoy steer meat with Worcester Sauce and then pick cotton." The sign was in reference to Texas full-back Steve Worster.

The winner of Saturday's game will be pitted against Notre Dame in the Cotton Bowl Jan. 1.

Says Texas Governor Not Confident

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov.

Winthrop Rockefeller said tongue-in-cheek Wednesday that Texas Gov. Preston Smith's quarantine against "red mountain hogs" showed a lack of confidence in the Longhorn football team in Saturday's Arkansas-Texas game.

Rockefeller said in a telegram to Smith that the Texas governor's proclamation Monday declaring a special quarantine covering the entire Longhorn end of the gridiron showed "such lack of confidence I have never heard."

Rockefeller, a cattleman, told Smith: "Imagine a governor feeling it necessary to irresponsibly proclaim a quarantine against fine red Arkansas Razorback Hogs to bolster the obviously faltering morale of millions of Texans who are daily noting the falling price of steers on the open market."

Rockefeller does not plan to attend the game, but Gov.-elect Dale Bumpers intends to be in Austin for Big Shootout II.

Cuba Defeats U.S. Team in Amateur Play

CARTAGENA, Colombia (AP) — Cuba beat the United States 3-1 in 11 innings Wednesday night in the opener of a three-game series to decide the World Amateur Baseball Championship.

Pitcher Jose Huelga, who outdueled Burt Hooten of the United States, won his own game by driving home Lazaro Perez with a single in the 11th. He later scored when Hooten fumbled an infield grounder.

In the second game, Thursday, southpaw Richard Troedson of the United States will pitch against Cuba's Santiago Mederos, also a left-hander.

Orlando Garcia pitched a one-hit shutout as Colombia defeated Guatemala 9-0 in another game Wednesday. Colombia finished with a record of 8-3.

Pros Hot at Last, Beat Indiana

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Memphis Pros were an 11-1 shot—and with odds like that, who can lose?

The Pros went on an 11-1 scoring spree in the final two minutes and nailed down a 106-100 American Basketball Association victory over Indiana Wednesday night.

The game was tied 15 times until the Pros went on their scoring binge to ice the victory. Steve Jones and James Jones paced the winners with 24 and 21 points, respectively.

Leading scorers for Indiana were Bob Netolicky and Freddie Lewis, with 22 apiece.

In the night's only other ABA games, Kentucky walloped Pittsburgh 139-127 and Utah topped Virginia 122-115.

In the National Basketball Association, Boston beat Los Angeles 114-111; Detroit walloped New York 101-82; Seattle whipped Cincinnati 119-111 and Phoenix stormed by Atlanta 126-112.

Darel Carrier, Louie Dampier and Mike Pratt combined for 41 points in the second half, sparking a comeback victory for Kentucky.

At one point in the closing minutes, the Eastern Division leading Colonels ran off 14 straight points before the Condors found the mark. Chuck Williams, who entered the game as a sub and played only 27 minutes, scored 27 points for the losers.

Zelma Beaty showed the way for Utah, scoring 35 points and grabbing 28 rebounds. George Scott had 29 points for the Squires.

New Assignment for Commander

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (AP) — Brig. Gen. Robin Olds, commander of cadets at the Air Force Academy, has been appointed U.S. Air Force director of aerospace safety.

An announcement Monday said the World War II fighter ace, husband of former movie star Ella Raines, would take over his new assignment Feb. 1.

His successor as commandant of the air cadets will be Brig. Gen. Walter T. Galligan.

We can't get enthused about South's jump to six diamonds, but there was nothing wrong with the final contract. On the other hand, there was a lot wrong with his play and he managed to find a way to go down.

It wasn't too difficult for him. He simply played out a couple of trumps and then led a spade to dummy's queen. East plunked the king on the queen and led a spade right back. South finessed the 10, but East produced the jack and South had lost two tricks. This was bad luck. If West had held the spade king or East the spade jack, South would have made his contract.

Do you see what South should have done? He should have tried to set up dummy's hearts. That way, he might well have been able to discard two spades and make an overtrick. Let's see how things would have come out. At trick two, South would ruff a heart with a high trump. Then he would lead a trump to dummy's nine. Both opponents would follow and South would be home free in spite of the 5-1 heart break. He would ruff another heart and enter dummy with the jack of trumps. Then a third heart ruff, followed by a club to dummy's ace. One more heart ruff would pick up West's last heart and leave one heart in dummy. South would get to dummy by ruffing his queen of clubs and he would be able to discard one of his spades, whereupon it wouldn't matter what happened in that suit.

Strangely enough, this hand should really have been bid to seven. All that is needed is either a 4-2 heart break and a 2-1 trump break, or a 3-3 heart break and any trump break.

Khrushchev Liked Ike, Article Says

NEW YORK (AP) — The second installment of Nikita S. Khrushchev's... reminiscences says that if Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower hadn't let the Russians take Berlin in 1945, the Soviet position in postwar Europe "might have turned out quite a bit worse."

The installment published in the Dec. 4 issue of Life magazine says Stalin had a great respect for Eisenhower's "decency, generosity and chivalry" and enjoyed a rapport with him that the Soviet dictator had with no other allied leader except President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

"Stalin said that if it hadn't been for Eisenhower, we wouldn't have succeeded in capturing Berlin," the article says. "The Americans could have been there first. Eisenhower held his troops back and halted their offensive, thus allowing our troops to take Berlin."

"If he hadn't done this, the question of Germany might have been decided differently, and our own position might have turned out quite a bit worse."

As the German army was being crunched between the Americans and British on the west and the Soviets on the east, the article continues, "they moved west to surrender to the Americans. Stalin addressed himself to Eisenhower, saying that Soviet troops had shed their blood to crush the Germans and now the Germans were surrendering to the Americans."

"Eisenhower ordered the commander of the German army to surrender to the Russians."

Khrushchev said it was "difficult to judge what the intentions of the Allies were toward the end of the war. I wouldn't exclude the possibility that their desire to postpone an assault on Hitler's Western Front was dictated by their desire to put a still greater burden on the shoulders of the Soviet Union and to bleed us even more ..."

"The Western Allies were certainly not interested in strengthening us, England and America, from their class positions, knew they had to help us to an extent, but they still wanted the Soviet Union to be considerably weaker after the war so that they could dictate their will to us ..."

"Nevertheless, we must still give credit to the Allies for their contribution to the common cause ... Unfortunately our historical works about World War II have perpetrated an illusion. They have been written out of a false sense of pride and out of a fear to tell the truth about our allies' contribution—all because Stalin himself held an incorrect, unrealistic position. He knew the truth, but he admitted it only to himself in the toilet."

The article speaks of Stalin in softer tones than the first one in the Nov. 27 edition of Life. In it Stalin was depicted as murderer of thousands who became unbalanced during the war.

Tapeworm Is Not Likely To Increase Appetite

By LAWRENCE E. LAMB, M.D.

Dear Doctor—Would I have a tapeworm? After having dinner, I'm hungry again. In about two hours, I have an empty feeling.

Dear Reader—Not likely. Less than 10 per cent of individuals with a tapeworm have an increased appetite.

There are many reasons for increased hunger. The most common cause is habit. To some extent, the more you eat, the more you want. Anxiety and boredom also contribute to the problem.

If a person is hungry in spite of eating more food and is actually losing weight, a medical checkup is indicated. Among the disorders that can cause this problem are an overactive thyroid gland and diabetes. Usually, there are other symptoms when these disorders cause increased eating without any weight gain. Tapeworms or any other kinds of worms is an unlikely possibility.

Dear Doctor—Is fluoridated water harmful for elderly people? Our city has voted to put it in our drinking water and we are opposed but would like to know the truth about it.

Dear Reader—No water is

Quebec City is Canada's oldest city, founded by the French explorer Samuel Champlain in 1609. It is the only fortified city in North America. The World Almanac notes, and is built upon rocky heights, giving it a strategic position overlooking the St. Lawrence River.

Court Ruling May Change Legislatures

By BARRY SCHWEID
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court is about to take up a voting case from Indiana that could force major changes in the way 38 states elect their legislatures.

The most significant byproduct of the change would be a far bigger voice for blacks and other core-city residents in the statehouses.

As the case snags now, Indiana is under orders from a federal district court to give Indianapolis "center township ghetto" its own state senators and representatives.

The state is appealing on the ground "cognizable racial minority groups" don't have a constitutional right to be singled out for representation. Twelve other states have jumped in to help Indiana while two civil liberties organizations and Alabama blacks are backing the Indians who shook the legislative framework with their suit.

The result could be political dynamite as the Supreme Court spins out its interpretation of the 14th Amendment's guarantee of "equal protection of the law" in this latest one-man, one-vote dispute.

The landmark opinions already have wrought a legislative revolution. State legislators must be elected from districts that are equal in population. Ditto for U.S. congressmen. The same holds true for smaller governmental units. And the states must justify any variances or draw new lines.

The practical effect of these rulings has been to shrink the disproportionate voice rural areas had in state legislatures and in Congress.

The Indiana case deals with a voting device whose constitutionality is still in doubt, the multimember district, and which, opponents say, gives suburbanites an unfair advantage over poorer city dwellers.

In Marion County, about 18 per cent of the people—three-fourths, of them black—live in the area designated "center township ghetto" by the three-judge district court.

For voting purposes they are lumped in with the other 82 per cent of the people in the county, almost all of them white and more prosperous, to elect eight members of the 50-member state senate and 15 members of the 100-member house.

If the "ghetto" people were in their own district they could elect two state senators and three state representatives.

The three federal judges, William E. Steckler, James E. Nolan and former Illinois Gov. Otto Kern, in a July 1969 ruling, said the arrangement is unconstitutional because the economic, social and racial interests of ghetto residents are canceled out by the suburbanites' voting strength.

The judges ordered Indiana to drop multimember districts. When the state legislature did not reappoint, the judges said they would impose their own plan.

Gov. Edgar D. Whitcomb fought back. He told the Supreme Court through his attorney general's office: "If the state legislature had considered the factors relied upon by the district court in enacting an apportionment scheme the scheme would have been soundly condemned as sophisticated gerrymandering."

Navy Blamed for Oil Slick Off Florida

By F. T. MACFEELY
Associated Press Writer
JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — A massive oil slick blamed on the U.S. Navy threatened 50 miles of north Florida beaches today.

State officials have accused the Navy of pouring more than 500,000 gallons of the thick, black fuel into Atlantic coastal waters.

Florida Marine Patrol and weather observers said if the winds held steady from the southeast, the oil could begin coming ashore late today.

The U.S. Navy admitted dumping two bargeloads of waste liquid into the Atlantic Monday night. A spokesman said such dumpings are made on a regular basis about eight times a year and usually consist of 90 per cent water.

However, Mike Wenzel, a Jacksonville waste oil dealer who had tried to sell the oil, said his tests last week of two barge loads of waste Navy No. 5 special fuel oil at Mayport Naval Station showed an exactly opposite ratio.

He said the oil tested at 1.6 per cent sulfur content, too high to interest local buyers. He did offer to dispose of the oil for about one cent a gallon, he said, but "when I called them Monday, they told me they planned to dump it offshore."

Gov. Claude Kirk wired Navy Secretary John H. Chafee asking an inquiry into who ordered the dumping and urged an emergency cleanup operation to prevent it from fouling the beaches.

Rep. Charles Bennett, D-Fla., said Capt. Don Dietz, commanding officer of Mayport Naval Station, told him the waste is customarily dumped 55 miles at sea—five miles farther than the 1924 oil pollution law requires.

Randolph Hodges, director of the State Natural Resources Department, said when located Wednesday the oil slick covered 760 square miles and was 23 miles offshore at its closest point.

IRS to Help Taxpayers

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Internal Revenue Service said Wednesday that Arkansas can obtain help with their federal tax problems by dialing a toll-free telephone number from anywhere in the state.

The number is 800-482-9350. Residents of Little Rock, North Little Rock and Jacksonville should use the local IRS number, a spokesman said.

Nothing Makes a Man Look Older Than Trying Hard to Look Young

There is nothing that makes a man look older than trying too hard to look young.

BRUSSELS (AP) — President Nixon pledged today that the United States will not reduce its forces in Europe unless the Russians reduce theirs.

Nixon made his pledge in a statement read by Secretary of State William P. Rogers to the winter meeting of the foreign ministers of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

"We have agreed," Nixon said, "that NATO's conventional forces must not only be maintained, but in certain key areas, strengthened. Given a similar approach by our allies, the United States will maintain and improve its forces in Europe and will not reduce them unless there is reciprocal action from our adversaries."

U.S. officials said the pledge went beyond the middle of 1972, the previous time limit on such

Possibility of Special Session

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. elect Dale Bumpers said Wednesday that there is the possibility that he might call a special session of the legislature before July 1 if there is not enough time in the regular session to consider all the measures he wants to propose.

He said he probably would propose more bills than he had originally anticipated.

"Bumpers said he was 'reasonably sure' that 90 per cent of his legislative program would be ready for the legislature when it convenes in January.

However, he said he would not hesitate to recess the legislature for a period of time if his program is not ready.

Individual legislators will receive a synopsis of his program prior to the opening of the session for their consideration. But, he said that the details of any tax program would be revealed at a later time. He said he might not arrive at a decision until after Jan. 1 on whether to seek tax legislation.

Bumpers and his staff are trying to determine a "base figure" on how much money they consider necessary to maintain state services at the current level, he said.

Bumpers said the total figure of a continuing level of services and expanded programs would be measured against anticipated revenues for the next fiscal year, projected by the state Administration Department at $264 million, $20 million more than in the current fiscal year.

Plane Missing in Vietnam, 123 Aboard

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. planes and helicopters criss-crossed the mountains of central South Vietnam today, searching for the wreckage of two American C123 transport planes missing since the weekend with a total of 38 Americans and 85 Vietnamese aboard.

Heavy clouds and low ceilings continued to hamper the search. One of the planes disappeared last Friday with six Americans and 73 Vietnamese aboard. The U.S. Command announced Sunday that it was missing.

Today the command announced a second C123 disappeared Sunday with five American crewmen, 27 American passengers and 12 Vietnamese passengers. A spokesman said it was on a scheduled passenger flight.

The command refused to say where it took off and where it was going because the Viet Cong or North Vietnamese might use that information to attack survivors and those

Medic Says Ex-Marines Hate Own Officers and S. Vietnamese More

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A medical researcher said in Senate testimony today that interviews with 60 ex-Marines convinced him they were more hostile toward the "South Vietnamese army and their own officers" than toward the Viet Cong.

Dr. Charles J. Levy, a research associate at Harvard Medical School, quoted a former Marine as telling how one man killed an Army officer with a truck, and another put a booby trap in his commanding officer's tent.

"They talked in terms of the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese army not being the primary focus of their hostility," Levy said in testimony prepared for the Senate Veterans Affairs Subcommittee.

Levy said the Marines expressed hostility toward two central targets: the South Vietnamese army, and American non-commissioned and commissioned officers.

Levy said there is an overwhelming need for a boot camp in reverse, to undo the attitudes and resolve emotional problems growing out of Vietnam combat.

He said his research over a two-year period involved 60 former Marines, all of whom enlisted, and all of whom were promoted while serving in South Vietnam.

Levy quoted one of the men as telling how he threw a one-legged, wounded South Viet-

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The National Weather Service says Arkansas can look forward to continued mild although slightly cooler weather for the next few days.

The service said a Southern Plains front expected to push into Northwest Arkansas by early Friday would sweep the state with a "moderately cooler" air mass Friday and Friday night, but no freezing conditions are in sight.

Day and night temperatures in the state have been running almost 20 degrees above the normals. Lows this morning, for instance, were mostly in the 60s, reaching 64 at Texarkana.

Fort Smith was the coolest spot this morning with 53 degrees.

Wednesday's highs ranged from 66 at Jonesboro to 78 at Texarkana.

Reduction in Draft Age Considered

By STAN BENJAMIN
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Draft director Curtis W. Tarr is considering asking Congress, on recommendation of his youth advisers, to lower the minimum draft age from 19 to 18.

Selective Service said the change is one of 36 suggested by 109 young draft advisers in a meeting here last June.

Of the recommendations, Tarr rejected only two outright. One would have authorized psychological testing of applicants for conscientious objector status, the other would have allowed judicial review of draft appeals at

Marijuana Seized, 4 Arrested

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Seven persons were arrested and marijuana valued at several thousand dollars was seized in connection with two narcotics raids in Jonesboro and Sylamore (Izard County) Wednesday night.

Five of the persons were arrested in a raid on a large two-story home in Jonesboro. Joe I. Petrek, 20, of Jonesboro, who was living at the house, was arrested on a warrant charging him with selling marijuana, and another occupant of the house, Ernest W. Miller, 23, of Jonesboro and Sylamore was arrested on a warrant charging him with selling marijuana. Police also said the two would be charged with possession of marijuana.

Two other young men and a woman were arrested at the house but no charge has been filed against them. Three other individuals at the house were questioned and released.

Two other persons also were arrested at their homes in Jonesboro. They were Richard L. Castleman, 21, and Jimmy R. Weaver, 22. They were arrested on warrants charging them with selling marijuana.

Seized at the two-story house in Jonesboro were 71 boxes of marijuana already packaged for sale and 59 plastic bags filled with marijuana. Also seized was a large quantity of morning glory seeds, which are used in the manufacture of LSD. A quantity of pills and capsules and various other drug equipment also was confiscated.

4 Charged With Having LSD

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Four Little Rock youths were charged with possession of LSD following their arrest here Wednesday night.

Police identified the four as Michael Thomas Sumrall, 17; Kenneth W. Neal, 17; Barbara L. Galloway, 16; and Sheila Kay Kelley, 16, all of Little Rock.

Hope Fades for Action on Any Major Consumer Legislation Soon

By G. DAVID WALLACE
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A parliamentary maneuver of some sort apparently offers the last hope of producing any major consumer legislation in the 91st Congress.

But, in the wake of a crucial setback, supporters of a bill creating a federal consumer protection agency weren't even sure what sort of maneuvers might be available to them—a measure of how scant are their hopes.

Rep. Bob Eckhardt, D-Tex., had warned before a House Rules Committee vote on the agency bill Wednesday that a defeat also would spell the end of his class-action bill and the major consumer legislation in Congress.

The committee's 7-7 vote blocked the legislation from coming to the House floor and spokesmen for Rep. Benjamin S. Rosenthal, D-N.Y., chief sponsor, said the action virtually kills the bill.

But Rosenthal, Government Operations Committee Chairman Chet Holifield, D-Calif., and the House Democratic leadership nevertheless began searching for a possible parliamentary move which could get the bill to the House floor in the few weeks remaining in this session.

Crucial Vote in Senate on SST Issue

By LAWRENCE L. KNUTSON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The supersonic transport is flying toward a crucial Senate vote amid the flack of critics who call it an environmental monster and a taxpayers' nightmare, and backers' claims it will preserve American dominance in world aviation.

The moment of decision for the embattled plane will come on an amendment by Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., to strike the $290 million earmarked to continue development on two SST prototypes from the $7 billion transportation appropriation for fiscal 1971.

In a flurry of last-minute action Wednesday, SST backers won points among undecided senators by passing separate legislation which meets some of the worries of critics head-on: the sonic boom and excessive airport noise.

But those critics added still another charge to the long list of potential environmental crimes they've chalked up against the federally subsidized project. They released a scientist's assertion the plane eventually may be responsible for causing 10,000 or more cases of skin cancer a year.

New Defector Guidelines Are Ordered

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House announced today new guidelines to insure there will never be a recurrence of "a shocking incident" of the kind involving a Lithuanian seaman who tried to defect to this country last week.

Press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said "under no circumstance should the person seeking asylum be arbitrarily or summarily returned to foreign jurisdiction or control" pending determination of the status of the situation.

The guidelines also say, Ziegler said, that "to the extent circumstances permit persons seeking asylum should be afforded every possible care and protection."

Ziegler said the Coast Guard now is conducting an investigation, and the State Department also is continuing its study of the incident.

President Nixon received reports of the incident Wednesday night from the departments of state and transportation, Ziegler said, and is reviewing them.

Nixon has directed that the secretaries of state and transportation "take immediate remedial action to insure that there will never be a recurrence of a shocking incident of this kind," Ziegler said.

In Boston, the leader of a Lithuanian group said the writings of the sailor contained the line, "It is worth dying for freedom."

The sailor, Simonas Kudirka, 32, radio operator aboard a Soviet ship, sought freedom in a leap aboard the Coast Guard cutter Vigilant off Martha's Vineyard Nov. 23.

Texarkana, Grand Senior Deacon of the Grand Lodge of Arkansas Masons was the principal speaker and brought a very interesting message pertaining to history of Whitfield Lodge as furnished him by Harry Shiver, a member of Whitfield Lodge. As Mr. Overstreet closed his remarks he presented several thoughts as to what Masonry means to our country.
Chili for the supper was prepared by Fay James, a member of the local lodge and it was served by Y. C. Coleman and Arthur (Buddy) Mhoon who are also members of Whitfield Lodge.

Months Before Mortgage Mkt. Working Again

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Interest rates throughout most of the business world are receding today like an ebbing flood tide but it will be months before the badly damaged mortgage market can be put into working order.

For some obvious reasons, and some obscure ones also, the interest rates on home mortgages are among the last to fall in any rate retreat. And the pattern never was more clear than now.

The discount rate at Federal Reserve banks has fallen from 6 per cent to 5.5 per cent in one year. Some commercial paper rates have been halved. Some U.S. Treasury issues are down 2.5 per cent. Some banks loans cost 7 per cent now compared with 8.5 a year ago.

But, the average interest rate charged on new home mortgages in October rose—not fell 8 to 8.5 per cent, compared with 8.1 per cent a year earlier. In September, the rate had been down to 8.48 per cent.

A relatively few critics of the banking and savings and loan structures tend to feel that a conspiracy exists, but a look at the reasons why tends to dispel such notions, albeit without justifying the situation.

Moreover, most of the widely published economic analysis foresees mortgage rates joining the tide in the next year, primarily because of an expected influx of money from other areas.

In some states, for example, usury laws shut off the flow of money into mortgages. With yields of 8 per cent or more available in corporate bonds, federally insured savings and loan associations experienced an outflow of $429 million.

Another factor supporting the high cost of mortgages is the enormous demand from families that have been forced for several years to postpone their housing plans because loans were unobtainable.

In fact, officials of the savings and loan industry, which is the major lender of housing funds, maintain that the average interest rate on mortgages would have been much higher if the forces of supply-demand were the sole determinant.

A year earlier, by contrast, in other words, they say, the 8.5 per cent rate is really artificial or legislated. The hypothetical demand rate is still higher than that, they say, and won't fall much below 8.5 per cent for months.

There is little question that demand for housing is great, but sometime during the next year mortgage lenders might find that the ability of builders to meet demands rather than housing needs will determine the demand for their money.

Yacht Sinking Settlement

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A $1 million law suit by comedian Jerry Lewis over the sinking of his yacht Pussycat has been settled out of court.

The boat, a 65-footer, went down off the coast of California soon after Lewis bought it four years ago. He and four others aboard swam to safety.

Lewis filed his damage action against the firm which sold him the boat and two insurance companies. Terms of the settlement Monday were not disclosed.

EPA Designed to Battle Pollution

By STAN BENJAMIN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Environmental Protection Agency, a kind of federal gladiator in the war against pollution, was born today.

Unique in both scope and potential muscle, EPA is mandated to establish and enforce anti-pollution standards, administer financial grants and technical aid, conduct research, and help develop a national environmental policy.

That makes it the supreme federal pollution-fighter, and all the more so because it assembles under one roof existing anti-pollution programs formerly scattered among the Interior Department, Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Department of Agriculture, and Atomic Energy Commission.

EPA is the third new environment-related agency established by President Nixon in 1970—and the fourth cornerstone to a federal environment structure that greatly resembles the unfinished pyramid depicted on the back of a dollar bill.

One corner of the pyramid is the Interior Department, which retains jurisdiction over federal land, and a number of mineral and water resources.

The second corner is the Council on Environmental Quality, a three-member panel of advisers to the president.

The third is the National Oceanographic and Atmospheric Administration, a new branch of the Commerce Department established Oct. 3 to balance development with environmental safeguards in the oceans.

EPA completes the reorganization originally planned by Nixon, although further changes may be under consideration.

Even as EPA became a legal reality, William D. Ruckelshaus, director of the Justice Department's civil law division, was still testifying before the Senate, which has yet to confirm his nomination as director of EPA.

But Ruckelshaus has been installed at EPA's new offices in downtown Washington for almost a month now, working out the necessary organizational transition.

The new outfit, after all, must pull together some 5,800 employees and budgets, which totaled $1.4 billion in fiscal 1971.

While Ruckelshaus will not reveal details until he is sworn in—probably next week—EPA likely will be structured along traditional lines:

—A segment for water pollution, paralleling the Federal Water Quality Administration drawn from the Interior Department.

—Segments on air pollution, and solid waste management from HEW.

—Pesticide controls from the Agriculture Department.

—And environmental radiation from HEW and the Atomic Energy Commission.

The big question is just how forceful EPA will be in setting and enforcing standards of purity for the nation's air and water.

Ruckelshaus would like to achieve compliance by industry and others with antipollution standards by gentle persuasion, if possible, but he says he learned, during his days in the Indiana state attorney general's office, that you may have to prosecute a few offenders before the others can be persuaded.
